Community Involvement

Panera Bread® and its franchise community are committed to actively supporting the communities we serve through four major programs: Community Breadbox™ cash collection boxes, the Day-End Dough-Nation™ program, Panera Bread/Scrip Card fundraising and participation in community events.

- Community Breadbox - A portion of cash donations made by customers in participating bakery-cafes may be matched and are distributed to hunger relief agencies or local non-profit organizations.
- Day-End Dough-Nation - At the end of each day, unsold bread and baked goods at participating bakery-cafes are donated to local non-profits which provide food to those in need.
- SCRIP Fundraising - The Scrip fundraising program helps non-profit organizations raise money through pre-purchased Panera Bread gift cards.
- Community Events - In-kind donations are regularly made to local non-profits and community events through silent auctions, runs and walks, trivia nights and raffles.
